The Solemnity of All Saints – November 1

On Monday, November 01, we honour our departed brothers and sisters, whom we believe are with God in heaven. Scriptures describe the saints as "people from every nation, tribe and language standing in front of the throne of God and before the Lamb Jesus Christ offering praise and thanksgiving" (see Revelation 7). The saints share with us one baptism and one faith in Jesus Christ. They lived lives of fidelity to God even if that life meant death. The stories about the lives of the saints inform us that they witnessed to God in their own circumstances and situations-- by serving others with the gifts entrusted to them-- a life of faithful discipleship.

Our celebration of All Saints' Day reminds us that the saints were ordinary people--young, adult, lay men and women, clergy and religious who responded to the call of Jesus "to take up their cross to follow him". According to Saint Paul, by virtue of our baptism in Christ we are all called to be saints-- called to embrace a life of holiness (I Cor. 1:1-2). During this COVID-19 pandemic, we have heard amazing stories of people who have served others with acts of selflessness and the love for the other. This year's celebration of All Saints' Day should also include our prayers of thanks for those among us who have acted in such extraordinary ways. Today's celebration reminds us that as Christians we are to develop an attitude similar to that of the saints. It is at a time like this that we need to show greater concern for the other to help bring the love of God to all through our actions based on our faith. Through the intercession of "so great a cloud of witnesses", may God guide us to imitate the faithfulness of the saints in our service to God's people. Happy All Saints' Day.

Excerpt from Fr. Yaw Acheampong, "Saints are models of faithful discipleship", Catholic Register, October 25, 2020
