THE SEASON OF LENT-2023

We begin the season of Lent on Ash Wednesday, February 22. After the Mass on Ash Wednesday, we leave our churches with a renewed desire "to repent and to believe in the Gospel" (Mark 1:15). Lent is a time of reflection: a time to examine the state of our spiritual lives. But, we often think of Lent as an austere time symbolized by the absence of flowers around the altar in our churches. The seriousness of Lent makes us wonder how we can live so that our lives may reflect the nature of the season. Every Lent we usually plan to observe some spiritual practices, referred to as Lenten discipline. Traditionally, these practices are centered on prayer, fasting and charity (Matthew 6). We hope that our Lenten discipline may help us spiritually grow as we journey through Lent. However, after a few weeks into Lent, we may tend to lose interest in our plans. We may find it challenging to follow through our plans for Lenten discipline.

So, how can we have a spirit-driven Lenten discipline? Perhaps, this Lent we can take a different approach to making our plans to observe the season. We need to realize that our Lenten discipline is not about our ability to control what we can do. It is more about our willingness and our desire to allow Jesus to lead us on our journey. This year, let us see Lent from a different perspective-- we should not feel it is an obligation to "give up" something or to be charitable. Lent is the time that we "give up" something with joy for the sake of others. We "give up" something out of love. Our Lenten discipline, done with a loving heart, also helps others to experience the presence of God in their lives. This year, let our Lenten discipline reflect our understanding of God's love to us--our salvation-- revealed in the death of his Son Jesus on the Cross. When we strive to observe our Lenten practices based on love, we deepen our love for God who provides a path of hope toward the celebration of Easter.

Fr. Yaw Acheampong

New Archbishop of Toronto

Pope Francis has appointed Bishop Francis (Frank) Leo, currently Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Montreal, as the 14th Archbishop of Toronto. The archbishop-designate succeeds Cardinal Thomas Collins, who has served the archdiocese since 2007. The new archbishop will be installed at a ceremony at St. Michael's Cathedral Basilica on a date to be confirmed in the coming days. Following his installation, he will begin his assignment as shepherd of Canada's largest Catholic diocese, comprising almost two million Catholics and 225 parishes.

Pastoral Letters to Advance the Healing Journey with Indigenous Peoples of This Land

On February 8, 2023, the Bishops of Canada released a series of pastoral letters to advance the journey of healing, reconciliation and hope with Indigenous Peoples of this land. Individual letters have been prepared for First Nations, Inuit and Metis communities. In addition, the bishops have released a letter to Catholics throughout the country.

Copies of the letters can be accessed by visiting:
