Our Lady of Peace Parish 1951– 2026

JUBILEE PRAYER

Heavenly Father,

We thank You for the gift of Our Lady of Peace Parish, for 75 years of faith, hope, and love lived in this community.

You have gathered us at Your table,
washed us in the waters of Baptism,
nourished us with Your Word and Sacraments,
and sent us forth as witnesses of Your peace.

Through the intercession of Mary, Our Lady of Peace,
help us to remember with gratitude the past,
serve with generosity in the present,
and walk with trust into the future.

Renew our parish during this Jubilee year.
Bless all the priests who have served this parish.
Strengthen our families, inspire our youth,
comfort the suffering,
and welcome all who seek a home in Your Church.

Make us instruments of Christ's peace,
so that, guided by the Holy Spirit,
Our Lady of Peace Parish may continue to proclaim the Gospel for generations to come.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Choose Life: From Rules to Righteousness

“I’ve got good news and bad news,” says the cartoon Moses coming down the mountain. “The good news is I got Him down to ten. The bad news is adultery is still in there.” We smile at the joke — but it hides a serious truth. God’s commandments are not random restrictions or outdated rules. They are not meant to make life harder. They are given to protect our happiness and guide us toward freedom and fullness of life.

In today’s readings, God places before us a clear choice: “Before you are life and death... choose life.” (Sirach 15) Sirach reminds us that God does not force us. We are not puppets. We are free. We can choose obedience or disobedience, love or selfishness, life or destruction. And we must live with the consequences of our choices.

The Commandments are not chains; they are guardrails. Some people think God’s laws are too strict or old-fashioned. Yet imagine removing one: “Do not kill”? “Do not steal”? “Do not commit adultery”? Society would collapse. The truth is simple: God’s laws are timeless because human nature hasn’t changed. What wounded families and hearts centuries ago still wounds them today.

Jesus takes this teaching even deeper in the Gospel. He does not abolish the Law — He fulfills it. He moves us beyond external rule-keeping to inner transformation. It is not enough to say, “I didn’t kill.” Jesus asks: What about your anger? It is not enough to say, “I didn’t commit adultery.” He asks: What about your thoughts and desires? It is not enough to avoid false oaths. He says: Be so truthful that your simple ‘yes’ means yes. Jesus goes to the root of the heart. Because sin always begins inside before it shows outside.

History gives us a sobering lesson. Two brilliant writers were born in the same year: Shakespeare and Christopher Marlowe. Shakespeare lived long and changed literature forever. Marlowe, equally gifted, died young after a tavern quarrel turned into a fatal fight. His anger destroyed his life and his promise. One uncontrolled emotion ended a great future.

Anger, lust, dishonesty — these are not small matters. They quietly erode relationships, families, and souls. Jesus calls us to something higher: integrity. To be the same person inside and out. To forgive quickly. To speak truthfully. To respect life.

To love faithfully. Christian life is not about minimum requirements. It is about maximum love.

The Commandments are not merely “don’ts.” They are really invitations: Respect life. Protect marriage and family. Speak truth. Forgive others. Choose goodness. In short: become holy as your Father is holy.

This week, let us ask ourselves: Is there anger I need to let go of? Is there someone I need to forgive or reconcile with? Are my words honest and kind? Do my choices reflect God’s wisdom or just my impulses?

God places the choice before us every day: life or death, blessing or curse. May we choose life. May we choose love. May we choose Christ. Because in the end, God’s commandments are not about restriction — they are about freedom, joy, and lasting peace.

Lenten Recollection, Reconciliation & Healing Mission

“Father, forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing.” — Luke 23:34

Lent is a sacred season of grace — a time to pause, to return to the Lord, and to allow Him to heal what is wounded within us. We invite you to experience a powerful Lenten Mission where the light of Christ can touch your heart, lift your burdens, and lead you to forgiveness, freedom, and new life.

Our Lady of Peace Parish warmly welcomes you and your family to these special days of prayer and renewal, led by

Fr. Roy Palatty, CMI
Spiritual Director of Shalom World, gifted preacher, and Professor of Philosophy.

Mission Schedule

Sat, Feb 28: 5:00 p.m. – Holy Mass & Talk
Sun, Mar 1: 10:00 a.m. – Holy Mass & Talk & 11:30 a.m. – Holy Mass & Talk
Mon, Mar 2: 7:00–9:00 p.m. – Holy Mass | Talk | Eucharistic Adoration
Tue, Mar 3: 7:00–9:00 p.m. – Holy Mass | Talk | Eucharistic Adoration
Wed, Mar 4: 6:00–9:00 p.m. – Confessions | Holy Mass | Healing Adoration

As we celebrate our 75th Anniversary, this mission is a beautiful moment of grace — not only to renew our parish, but to renew our hearts, our families, and our relationship with God.

All are welcome — individuals, couples, and families.

Come and be renewed in Christ.
