Our Lady of Peace Parish 1951– 2026

JUBILEE PRAYER

Heavenly Father,
We thank You for the gift of Our Lady of Peace Parish, for 75 years of faith, hope, and love lived in this community.

You have gathered us at Your table,
washed us in the waters of Baptism,
nourished us with Your Word and Sacraments,
and sent us forth as witnesses of Your peace.

Through the intercession of Mary, Our Lady of Peace,
help us to remember with gratitude the past,
serve with generosity in the present,
and walk with trust into the future.

Renew our parish during this Jubilee year.
Bless all the priests who have served this parish.
Strengthen our families, inspire our youth,
comfort the suffering,
and welcome all who seek a home in Your Church.

Make us instruments of Christ's peace,
so that, guided by the Holy Spirit,
Our Lady of Peace Parish may continue to proclaim the Gospel for generations to come.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Holy Trinity

Today the Church celebrates one of the greatest and deepest mysteries of our faith — the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity. We profess our belief in one God in three Divine Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Though this mystery is beyond the complete understanding of the human mind, it is at the very heart of Christian life. Every prayer we begin, every sacrament we celebrate, and every Sign of the Cross we make reminds us that we belong to the Triune God.

The Trinity is not merely a theological concept or a doctrine learned in catechism. The Trinity is the living God reaching out to humanity in love. The Father creates us, the Son redeems us, and the Holy Spirit sanctifies and guides us. The mystery of the Trinity teaches us that God is not solitude — God is relationship, communion, and perfect love.

In today's first reading from Exodus, Moses encounters God on Mount Sinai. God reveals Himself as "merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and rich in kindness and fidelity." This beautiful description tells us who God truly is. Sometimes people imagine God as distant, angry, or ready to punish. But the Scriptures reveal a God who is patient, forgiving, compassionate, and faithful even when His people fail Him. Moses bows down in worship because he recognizes that God's greatness is revealed most clearly in His mercy.

The Gospel gives us perhaps the most famous and comforting verse in all of Scripture: "God so loved the world that He gave His only Son." Jesus did not come into the world to condemn humanity but to save it. The entire mission of Jesus is a revelation of the Father's love. On the Cross, we see how far God is willing to go to rescue His children. Christianity is not built on fear but on the overwhelming truth that we are deeply loved by God.

In the second reading, St. Paul offers a blessing that has echoed through the centuries in the liturgy of the Church: "The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you." In those few words, Paul summarizes the Christian life. We live by the grace of Christ, rest in the love of the Father, and are united through the fellowship of the Holy Spirit.

The Trinity also teaches us how we are called to live with one another. The Father, Son, and Holy Spirit exist in perfect unity, harmony, and self-giving love. In a world often divided by selfishness, conflict, anger, and isolation, the Trinity becomes the model for every Christian family and community. Our homes are meant to be places of forgiveness, patience, understanding, prayer, and unity. When families pray together and love one another sacrificially, they reflect the life of the Trinity itself.

The Feast of the Holy Trinity is also a reminder of our dignity. Through Baptism, we became temples of the Holy Spirit and members of God's own family. God is not far away from us. The Father watches over us, the Son walks beside us, and the Holy Spirit lives within us. We live in God, God lives with us, and God lives in us.

In a world filled with anxiety, loneliness, and uncertainty, today's feast offers us comfort and hope. We are never abandoned. The God who created the universe knows us personally, loves us deeply, and journeys with us daily. Every Eucharist we celebrate is an invitation to enter more fully into the life and love of the Holy Trinity.

May this Feast of the Most Holy Trinity renew our faith and inspire us to live more lovingly, peacefully, and faithfully. Let our families reflect the unity of the Trinity. Let our parish become a community of communion and welcome. And let our hearts remain always open to the Father's love, the Son's grace, and the Spirit's guidance.

May we pray often with the words of St. Francis Xavier: "Most Holy Trinity, who live in me, I praise You, I worship You, I adore You, and I love You."
