What is this?

This year's camp is all about having fun, making new friends, and sharing amazing experiences within the OLP Community for the summer!

Camp week is: August 3rd to 7th, from 8:50am to 4pm daily

Where is it?

Campers will come to the OLP parish hall in the basement of the Church. We are located at: 3914 Bloor St. West, Etobicoke, ON, M9B 1L7

What's the cost?

The registration cost is $20 per child for each day.

This pricing reflects the affordability compared to other camps, as well as offsetting the cost for camp materials, snacks, and a pizza lunch for Friday: Aug 7th.

We are currently on a first come, first serve basis, so don't delay!

Registration forms are available at the back of OLP Church or in the Parish Office and online at: <https://olpeace.archtoronto.org/en/parish-life/summer-camp-2026/>

What are we doing?

The activities range from day to day, but will typically include; daily reading time & storytelling, arts & crafts, group games, skits & sing-alongs, outdoor time at the Greenfield Park (just across from OLP) & much more, all in the comfort of OLP.

What to bring:

- Dress for the weather; comfortable & church appropriate (no vulgarity, graphic images, etc.)
- Personal lunch for Monday to Thursday
- Books, games, toys for free time
- small bag or backpack to take home completed activities
- Sunscreen & hat for outdoors
- Reusable water bottle

Optional:

- notebook and pencil/pen
- colouring pencils/crayons

What NOT to bring:

- Electronic devices
- valuables; jewellery etc.
- Any food containing nuts

 all snacks and food provided by OLP will be nut-free, but please indicate any other allergies on the registration form
